

ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

The Order consisting of a General Division and a Military Division accords recognition for achievement for meritorious service.

Knight (AK)

Appointment as Knight in the General Division was made for extraordinary and pre-eminent achievement and merit in service to Australia or to humanity at large. It is no longer awarded.

1981

Arthur Roden CUTLER (SHS: 1932-1934)

For public service and for service to the Crown.

Companion (AC)

Appointment as Companion in the General Division is made for eminent achievement and merit of the highest degree in service to Australia or to humanity at large. Appointment as Companion in the Military Division is made for eminent service in duties of great responsibility.

1978

James PLIMSOLL (SHS: 1929-1933)

For eminent and meritorious public service, particularly as a distinguished diplomatic representative of Australia.

John Grenfell CRAWFORD (SHS: 1923-1927)

For eminent and meritorious public service and services to commerce, industry, trade, agriculture, learning and international relations.

1983

Tristan Venus ANTICO (SHS: 1939-1940)

For services to industry and the community.

1990

John Halden WOOTTEN (SHS: 1935-1939)

For service to human rights, to conservation, to legal education and to the law.

1991

John Warcup CORNFORTH (SHS: 1929-1933)

For service to science, particularly in the field of organic chemistry.

Jack Napier DAVENPORT (SHS: 1932-1935)

For service to business and industry and to the community.

1992

John Arthur PASSMORE (SHS: 1929-1930)

For service to philosophy, particularly the history of philosophy and the history of ideas.

1994

Peter Stephen WILENSKI (SHS: 1951-1955)

For service to international relations and to public sector reform, particularly through fostering the implementation of social justice and equity principles.

1998

Robert McCredie MAY (SHS: 1948-1952)

For service to science and scientific research, particularly in the area of biological conservation involving the interaction between population, resources and the environment, to scholarship and to the formulation of science policy.

2000

James Jacob SPIGELMAN (SHS: 1958-1962)

For service to the law and to the community through leadership in bringing about change in attitudes to the administration of justice for a more fair and equitable society, and to the support of the visual arts.

2002

(Peter) Richard Norman JOHNSON (SHS: 1936-1940)

For service to education as the inaugural Chancellor of the University of Technology, Sydney, for the development of academic standards and leadership in education issues, to the Australian Council of Professions, and to the architectural profession.

2004

Graeme Milbourne CLARK (SHS: 1947)

For service to medicine and to science through innovative research to further the development of cochlear implant technology for worldwide benefit.

Officer (AO)

Appointment as Officer in the General Division is made for distinguished service of a high degree to Australia or to humanity at large. Appointment as Officer in the Military Division is made for distinguished service in responsible positions.

1976

James William NORRIE (SHS: 1936-1940)

For distinguished service in responsible positions.

Menzie LIPSON (SHS: enrolled 1927)

For distinguished service of a high degree to science, particularly in the field of wool textile research.

1977

John WHITELAW (SHS: enrolled 1934)

Military Division

1978

Alfred Gordon ROWELL (SHS: 1929-1930)

For service to the dental profession.

John BEVERIDGE (SHS: 1937-1941)

For service to medicine particularly as clinical paediatrician.

Kevin William LATCHFORD (SHS: 1942)

For service to the Army.

1981

Jack Napier DAVENPORT (SHS: 1932-1935)

For service to business and industry and to the community.

1983

Andrew ANDERSONS (SHS: 1954-1958)

In recognition of service to architecture.

Richard Alan BONYNGE (SHS: 1942-1946)

For service to music.

Graeme Milbourne CLARK (SHS: 1947)

Service to medicine.

1984

Ralph Beattie BLACKET (SHS: 1930-1935)

For service to medicine.

Kenneth John Campbell BACK (SHS: 1938-1942)

In recognition of service to education.

1986

Maxwell Howard BRENNAN (SHS: 1947-1949)

For service to science and technology.

Warwick Sydney Lees STENING (SHS: 1927-1931)

For service in the field of medical education.

1987

Arthur Thomas GEORGE (SHS: 1928-1932)

For service to the community and to education.

James David WOLFENSOHN (SHS: 1945-1949)

For service as a financial and economic advisor to government and for service to the handicapped.

1988

William Kenneth FISHER (SHS: 1941-1943)

For service to industrial relations.

Harold Hyam GLASS (SHS: 1930-1934)

For service to the law and to the Royal Australian Navy.

Leslie LAZARUS (SHS: 1942-1946)

For service to medicine, particularly in the field of medical research.

David Edward SKILLINGTON (SHS: 1941-1945)

For service to engineering.

1989

David Samuel GREATOREX (SHS: 1946-1950)

For service to business and commerce particularly in the field of insurance.

Richard KINGSLAND (SHS: enrolled 1929 as Julius Allan Cohen)

For distinguished public service.

Barry Nigel NUNN (SHS: 1947-1951)

For service to the Army Reserve.

1990

Geoffrey Milton KELLERMAN (SHS: 1938-1942)

For service to medical education, particularly in the field of biochemical research.

1992

Leslie Ronald ZINES (SHS: 1944-1947)

For service to the Australian legal system, particularly in the field of constitutional law.

1993

Ronald PENNY (SHS: 1949-1953)

For service to medical research and education particularly in the field of clinical immunology.

Frederick Oscar STEPHENS (SHS: 1943-1944)

For service to medicine, particularly in the field of surgical oncology.

Ellice Simmons SWINBOURNE (SHS: 1938-1942)

For service to adult and tertiary education.

1994

Paul Leon STEIN (SHS: 1953-1956)

For service to environment law and to the community.

1995

William John HARRIS (SHS: 1955-1956)

For service to public administration particularly in the Australian Capital Territory and to the community.

1996

Stanley William McCARTHY (SHS: 1952-1956)

For service to medicine, particularly in the field of cancer pathology.

George MILLER (SHS: 1959-1963)

For service to the Australian film industry as a director, producer and writer, as founding board director of the Museum of Contemporary Art and as a member of the international jury of the Cannes Film Festival.

1997

Barry Stephen THORNTON (SHS: 1942-1946)

For service to education in the field of applied mathematics and computer science and in the promotion of research through the Foundation for Australian Resources.

1998

Ronald Newbold BRACEWELL (SHS: 1933-1937)

For service to science in the fields of radio astronomy and image reconstruction.

1999

Bruce William STILLMAN (SHS: 1970-1971)

For service to scientific research in the field of molecular biology, particularly through the analysis of DNA replication in the living cell.

2001

George Frederick MALTBY (SHS: 1940-1945)

For service to pioneering work in telecommunications through the development of services and technologies, particularly the establishment of optical fibre submarine cable and direct dial international call networks, and to libraries and education.

Michael Geoffrey SMITH (SHS: 1962-1967)

2003

Padraic Pearse McGUINNESS (SHS: 1954-1955)

For service to journalism by encouraging and stimulating wide ranging debate and exchange of ideas within the community, and by raising awareness of economic, social policy and human rights issues.

2004

Charles Peter CRITTLE (SHS: 1951-1955)

For service to Rugby Union football, particularly in the planning and hosting of the 2003 Rugby World Cup and as a player, coach and administrator.

Alfred Jacobus van der POORTEN (SHS: 1955-1959)

For service to mathematical research and education, particularly in the field of number theory.

2005

John David POLLARD (SHS: 1953-1958)

For service to medicine in the field of neurology, particularly the study of peripheral nerve disease and multiple sclerosis.

Bryan Alan BEAUMONT (SHS: 1951-1955)

For service to the judiciary, to the administration of the court, to improving legal education facilities and judicial infrastructure in the Pacific region, and to the community.

2007

John Nicholas BLACKBURN (SHS: 1968)

For distinguished service to the Royal Australian Air Force as Commander of the Integrated Area Defence System and Deputy Chief of Air Force.

Member (AM)

Appointment as Member in the General Division is made for service in a particular locality or field of activity or to a particular group. Appointment as Member in the Military Division is made for exceptional service or performance of duty.

1975

Maurice John SHAPIRO (SHS: 1938-1940)

(Civil Division.)

1976

William George COUGHLAN (SHS: 1916-1919)

(General division.)

1977

Cecil Dengate HENSLEY (SHS: enrolled 1923)
(General division.)

1978

Thomas Fulton Coleman LAWRENCE (SHS: 1930-1932)
For public service and for services to science and engineering.

1979

John Isadore EINFELD (SHS: enrolled 1932)
For service to the community and the welfare of ex-service men and women.

Phillip Roy CAREY (SHS: 1951-1955)
In recognition of service to the Royal NSW Regiment and to the Army Reserve.

1980

Maston BEARD (SHS: 1929-1933)
For public service in the field of radiophysics.

Michael CALDER (SHS: 1943-1944)
For service in the field of hydrography and particularly as hydrographer, Royal Australian Navy.

Frederick Kevin COLE (SHS: 1948-1952)
In recognition of service to the Australian Army for leadership of the Australian Contingent of the Commonwealth Monitoring Force in Southern Rhodesia

1981

Jack Hayward WATSON (SHS: 1930-1933)
For public and community service.

1982

Kenneth John CABLE (SHS: 1941-1945)
For service to education.

Derek David FREEMAN (SHS: 1936-1941)
For service to dentistry.

1983

John Henry Temple ELLARD (SHS: 1939-1940)
For service to medicine, particularly in the field of psychiatry.

Norman Wilfred SAVAGE (SHS: enrolled 1925)
Service to the community.

David Henry THOMSON (SHS: 1947-1948)
For service to the Royal Australian Navy, particularly as the commanding officer of HMAS Hobart.

1984

Robert Walter FISHER (SHS: enrolled 1952)
For service to Training Command

Stephen Charles HALL (SHS: 1949-1953)
For service to the performing arts, particularly as a producer and administrator.

Kenneth George MOSHER (SHS: 1926-1930)
For service to science and to the community.

1985

William Edward Leembruggen DE VOS (SHS: 1923-1927)
For service to the pastoral industry of the Northern Territory.

Rollo KINGSFORD-SMITH (SHS: 1932-1935)
For service to the Australian aviation industry.

Douglas Gordon PRICE (SHS: 1939-1943)
For service to engineering.

Neville Bruce GRUZMAN (SHS: 1938-1943)
For service to architecture.

1986

Frederick Nils BENNETT (SHS: 1942-1946)
For public service in the fields of industry and defence.

Joseph Frederick CORREY (SHS: 1937-1941)
For service to medicine, particularly in the field of obstetrics and gynaecology.

David Geoffrey FAILES (SHS: 1936-1940)
For service to medicine, particularly in the field of surgery.

Harold Victor QUINTON (SHS: 1925-1926)
For service to industry, particularly in the field of commerce, and to the community.

John Hadley (Jack) THOMPSON (SHS: 1953-1955)
For service to the film industry.

1987

Desmond Lionel FOSTER (SHS: 1936-1939)
For service to the media, particularly radio.

John Alexander BIRCH (SHS: 1946-1948)
For service to overseas aid agencies and international relations.

1988

George Henry Anderson KNOWLES (SHS: 1940-1944)
For public service and for service to agriculture.

Kenneth Frank WOOLLEY (SHS: 1945-1949)
For service to architecture.

1989

John Nicholas BLACKBURN (SHS: 1968)
In recognition of service to the RAAF as manager of a pilot training aid project for the F/A-18 Hornet

Neil Donald McINNIS (SHS: 1937-1941)
For public service.

Joachim SCHNEEWEISS (SHS: 1943-1944)
For service to the community, particularly the Jewish community.

John Kenrick STAVELEY (SHS 1943-1947)
For service to commerce, particularly the insurance industry.

1990

Warren George OSMOND (SHS: 1933-1935)

For service to veterans.

Ivor Lennox PINKERTON (SHS: 1931-1932)

For service to civil engineering.

1991

Victor Bruce BEAVER (SHS: 1941-1942)

In recognition of service to literature, particularly in the field of poetry

Frederick Douglas Claude CATERSON (SHS: 1930-1935)

For service to the New South Wales Parliament, to local government and to the community.

John Xenophon RAFTOS (SHS: 1935-1939)

For service to medicine, particularly in the field of hypertension and cardiology.

Michael Geoffrey SMITH (SHS: 1962-1967)

For service to the Australian Army as the Commanding Officer 2/4th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment.

1992

Robert Allen SLATER (SHS: 1955-1959)

Australian Army. for service as commander 6th Engineer Group.

1993

John Alfred BELL (SHS: 1956-1960)

In recognition of service to pharmacy.

Michael James HARRIS (SHS: 1946-1947)

For service to medicine, particularly in the field of paediatrics.

John Hans HIRSHMAN (SHS: 1939-1940)

For service to international health, particularly in the field of health care in developing countries.

1994

Michael Steven DIAMOND (SHS: 1948-1952)

For service to the Greek community.

Paul Leon STEIN (SHS: 1953-1956)

For service to environment law and to the community.

1995

David Edward FLINT (SHS: 1951-1955)

For service to the print media particularly as chairman of the Australian Press Council and to international relations.

Anthony William LINNANE (SHS: 1946-1947)

For service to medicine particularly in the fields of biochemistry and molecular biology.

Peter Edward MASON (SHS: enrolled 1959)

For service to the community as chairman of the Childrens Hospital fund of the Royal Alexandra Hospital for Children.

1996

Kenneth Wilson KNIGHT (SHS: 1939-1941)

For service to education, public administration and the archives authority of New South Wales.

Richard Albert LETTS (SHS: 1951-1952)

For service to music as an administrator and consultant.

Geoffrey Lawrence LUMSDAINE (SHS: 1936-1941)

For service to the institute of arbitrators, as chairman of the NSW chapter practice committee since 1986, and to the architecture profession.

Philip Ernest POWELL (SHS: 1942-1946)

For service to the law through the NSW Supreme Court since 1977 and as an executive member of the Law Council of Australia and the Australian Law Council Foundation.

1997

Richard John SMITH (SHS: 1947-1951)

For service to international relations, particularly in the areas of commerce and trade.

Geoffrey Arthur TOMBS (SHS: 1941-1945)

For service to gemmology through the Gemmological Association of Australia and the Jewellers and Allied Trades Valuers Council.

1998

John Douglas DONOGHUE (SHS: 1949-1953)

For service to the sport of rowing at club, national and international levels and to the Australian Olympic movement.

John Foster GALLOP (SHS: 1943-1947)

For service to the law as judge, to military law as a member of the Defence Force Discipline Appeals Tribunal, and to the community.

James Seymour HAGAN (SHS: 1942-1946)

For service to higher education and to the study of Australia's labour and social history.

John Peter SARCS (SHS: 1945-1949)

For service to ophthalmology, in particular to research into age-related muscular disease.

1999

Peter Thomas ANDERSON (SHS: enrolled 1960)

For service to the parliament of New South Wales, to local government, and to the community through arts, health and sporting groups.

2000

Colin Llewellyn Charles POWELL (SHS: 1945-1949)

For service to rural communities, particularly through the Remote and Isolated Pharmacy Association of Australia, and to Molong through a range of community support organisations.

Barry Dodd WEBB (SHS: 1953-1957)

For service to electrical engineering, particularly in the area of lighting as a consultant and lecturer.

2001

Gabriel Thomas DADOUR (SHS: 1942-1943)

For service to the community of Subiaco, particularly as a general practitioner, to local government and to the Western Australian Parliament.

2003

Richard James LONGBOTTOM (SHS: 1972-1976)

For exceptional service to the Australian Defence Force and the Royal Australian Navy in the fields of naval engineering and project management.

Peter John WERTHEIM (SHS: 1966-1971)

For service to the community as an executive member of a range of peak Jewish organisations, and through projects aimed at promoting greater community understanding.

2004

Robert Stewart DWYER (SHS: 1957)

For service to Rugby Union football, particularly as a coach of New South Wales and Australian representative teams.

Alan George NICHOLLS (SHS: 1950-1954)

For service to medicine and to the community of the Riverina area as an orthopaedic surgeon and through participation in overseas medical missions with the Australian Red Cross.

Rodney Isaac ROSENBLUM (SHS: 1946-1950)

For service to the development and reform of revenue law and to the community, particularly through AUSTCARE and Jewish Care.

Peter John SAMS (SHS: 1972-1973)

For service to industrial relations in New South Wales and as an advocate for improved workplace safety.

Ross TZANNES (SHS: 1952-1955)

For service to the community through a range of organisations, particularly in the areas of multiculturalism and the arts.

2005

Howard Frederick BOLLING (SHS: 1962-1968)

For service to the community through major fundraising initiatives to support medical research through the Westmead Millennium Foundation.

Hans Charles FREEMAN (SHS: 1941-1945)

For service to science and scientific research in the field of bio-inorganic chemistry, particularly through the establishment and development of the discipline of crystallography in Australia.

Bruce Norman KAYE (SHS: 1951-1955)

For service to the Anglican Church of Australia, particularly as General Secretary of the General Synod and as a scholar and author of texts on theology and church history.

Garry Barr NEHL (SHS: 1946-1951)

For service to the Australian Parliament and to the community through a range of organisations.

Graham Leonard NEWSTEAD (SHS: 1958-1959)

For service to medicine in the field of colorectal surgery, particularly through the development of the Colorectal Surgical Society of Australasia, the implementation of international specialist surgical training programs, and the promotion of health awareness initiatives.

Saxon William WHITE (SHS: 1946)

For service to medicine and to medical education, particularly through the planning and development of innovative curriculum, as a researcher in the field of human physiology, and to the Hunter Valley community.

2006

Alan Charles NICHOLS (SHS: 1949-1953)

For service to the community through charitable and refugee organisations, and to the promotion and facilitation of dialogue between government and the Anglican Church of Australia on a range of social welfare policies and practices.

Alan Raphael BARCAN (SHS: 1934-1938)

For service to the study of the history of education and social sciences in Australia and as a contributor to raising public debate on educational issues.

Ian Isaac Leopold LACEY (SHS: 1950-1951)

For service to the community, particularly as a contributor to law reform in relation to human rights issues and to the promotion of interfaith harmony.

Francis George SMYTH (SHS: 1939)

For service to medicine through the development and provision of general oncology and reconstructive surgical services in Papua New Guinea; and to the community of Port Moresby.

Peter SPIRA (SHS: enrolled 1960)

For service to the housing and construction industry as an architect, to the development of design standards and building methods, and to the Jewish community.

2007

Colin William LOVE (SHS: 1957-1961)

For service to sport as an administrator of Rugby League football at national and international levels, to sports law, and to the staging of sporting events.

Hugh Henry RALSTON (SHS: 1951)

For service to engineering, particularly as a contributor to the advancement of innovative technology, to the Warren Centre for Advanced Engineering, and to the community.

Benjamin Klaas SELINGER (SHS: 1951-1955)

For service to science education and to the community, particularly as a communicator of scientific issues to increase consumer awareness and ensure public access to goods and services that meet appropriate standards.

2008

Grahame James LEONARD (SHS: 1953-1955)

For service to the community as an executive member of a range of peak Jewish organisations.

2009

Norman Alfred MAY (SHS: 1940-1944)

For service to the community through promotional and support roles with the Australian Olympic and Commonwealth Games Team Appeals and through cultural and seniors' organisations.

Glenn Stewart GARDNER (SHS: 1957-1961)

For service to people with disabilities through executive roles, particularly with the Northcott Society, and to the community.

Peter Numa JOUBERT (SHS: 1936-1938)

For service to engineering through research in the field of fluid dynamics, particularly in relation to submarine design and education.

2010

David Desmond KNOLL (SHS: 1973-1977)

For service to the Jewish community through a range of peak, religious and educational organisations, and to the promotion of interfaith relations.

2011

Bruce Robert CORLETT (SHS: 1957-1961)

For service to the community through business advisory contributions to a range of charitable, medical research and educational organisations.

Kenneth Raymond DUTTON (SHS: 1950-1954)

For service to tertiary education as an administrator and academic and through contributions to the development of international engagement in Australian higher education.

Charles Percy Sydney SHUETRIM (SHS: 1953-1957)

For service to conservation and the environment through support for marine research, particularly at the Lizard Island Research Station and the Sydney Institute of Marine Science.

Medal (OAM)

The Medal of the Order in the General Division is awarded for service worthy of particular recognition. The Medal of the Order in the Military Division is awarded for meritorious service or performance of duty.

1982

James William Fletcher SWEET (SHS: 1927-1931)

For service to the sport of rifle shooting.

William John YOULL (SHS: 1936-1937)

For public service and for service to the community.

1983

John Henry Harold FRASER (SHS: 1929-1933)

For service to the community.

Norman Alfred Vale MAY (SHS: 1940-1944)

For service to the media.

1984

Ian Campbell Gordon CARPENTER (SHS: 1931-1935)

In recognition of service to the community of Orange, particularly through service clubs and organisations

Leslie John HOWARD (SHS: 1954-1958)

For service to the sport of rugby union football.

Samuel KARPIN (SHS: 1918-1922)

For service to the Jewish community in Australia.

1986

Richard David BRADSHAW (SHS: 1951-1955)

For service to the arts as a puppeteer.

1989

John Osbourne DEXTER (SHS: 1938-1942)

For service to the avocado and kiwifruit growing industry.

Alexander Kennedy SUTHERLAND (SHS: 1932-1933)

For service to veterinary science.

1991

Vernon Kenneth TURNER (SHS: 1935-1936)

For service to Christian broadcasting.

1993

John Percival Spence BACH (SHS: 1936-1940)

For service to maritime history.

Colin Frederick DAVIES (SHS: 1939-1940)

For service to the law and to the community.

Bernard George JUDD (SHS: 1931-1935)

For service to the community, particularly through the Council of Churches NSW.

1995

William Stanley WATSON (SHS: 1930-1933)

For service to the community particularly through the Scout Association of Australia.

1996

John Colin Campbell (SHS: 1931-1935)

In recognition of service to the Baptist Church of NSW and the community

Joseph Zev EISENBERG (SHS: 1960-1967)

For service to the arts, particularly as director of the New England Regional Art Museum.

Richard Allan FRENCH (SHS: 1949-1953)

For service to cricket, particularly the umpiring of Sheffield Shield competitions, test matches and one day internationals and in the Sydney competition.

Peter Numa JOUBERT (SHS: 1936-1938)

For service to road and offshore yachting safety.

1997

Edward Phillip KREMER (SHS: 1957-1962)

For service to medicine and to the community.

1998

John Edgar MINSON (SHS: 1940-1944)

For service to country music and to the entertainment industry, and in particular for his contribution in establishing Tamworth as the country music capital of Australia.

1999

Guy Wilkie WARREN (SHS: 1933-1935)

For service to art, particularly as a painter, lecturer and journalist.

2000

William Buchanan ROSS (SHS: 1936-1938)

For service to the families of deceased police officers through New South Wales Police Legacy.

Oswald Boaz TOFLER (SHS: 1939-1943)

For service to the Jewish community of Western Australia, and to medicine, particularly in the field of cardiology.

2002

Franklin John GRAY (SHS: enrolled 1930)

For service to medicine as a surgeon, and to medical education.

Ian John KENNEDY (SHS: 1949-1954)

For service to the community through the Starlight Children's Foundation.

Max Emory LAKE (SHS: 1936-1940)

For service to the establishment of the boutique wine industry in Australia as a winemaker, judge, promoter and author.

Bruce Robert MILES (SHS: 1935-1937)

For service to the law, particularly through the New South Wales Aboriginal Legal Service.

2003

Lester Gerald CASHEN (SHS: 1937-1941)

For service to the Catholic Church, particularly in the area of education and in the administration of St Johns College at the University of Sydney.

Ralph CASHMAN (SHS: 1948-1952)

For service to weightlifting, particularly through the New South Wales Weightlifting Association and the Australian Weightlifting Federation.

Frederick George CASSIDY (SHS: 1935-1937)

For service to the community, particularly through the No 30 Squadron Beaufighter Association.

Noel Bruce CRELLIN (SHS: 1948-1952)

For service to the community, particularly people with disabilities.

Philip Victor GREEN (SHS: 1972-1977)

For service through the provision of assistance to victims and to their families following the bombings which occurred in Bali on 12 October 2002.

Norman Harold HENDERSON (SHS: enrolled 1935)

For service to the community, particularly to children with disabilities through the Sunnyfield Association.

2004

Kenneth Raymond DUTTON (SHS: 1950-1954)

For service to tertiary education as an academic, scholar and administrator and through the study of the French language and literature.

Alan Kaufman MILSTON (SHS: 1937-1939)

For service to the community, particularly through Rostrum Australia, and to the engineering profession.

Peter George SIMPSON (SHS: 1949-1953)

For service to science education, particularly through the Chemistry Olympiad Program in Western Australia, and to the community.

John Hughes JOBLING (SHS: 1954)

For service to the New South Wales Parliament and to the community of the Muswellbrook Shire.

2005

Bryce Matthew HARDMAN (SHS: 1949-1951)

For service to business administration as a contributor to the development of education and training programs and formulating standards of professional conduct and best practice.

Raymond Leslie SMEE (SHS: 1946-1947)

For service to amateur sport, particularly water polo, as an administrator, coach, referee and competitor, and to the community.

2006

John Samuel CHENHALL (SHS: 1945-1946)

For service to the community through Rotary International.

Ian Doric GLACHAN (SHS: 1947)

For service to the Parliament of New South Wales, and to the community of the Albury region through a range of local organisations.

Francis Septimus OWEN (SHS: 1933-1938)

For service to the community of Newcastle through public speaking and charitable organisations.

2007

Paul CONWAY (SHS: 1958-1962)

For service to the community, particularly through the National Council of Jewish Women of Australia, and to the law.

John Henry DENING (SHS: 1937-1939)

For service to the welfare of veterans and their families through a range of roles with ex-service organisations.

Bernard FREEDMAN (SHS: 1937-1941)

For service to journalism and to the community, particularly as a correspondent and political editor of Australian Jewish News.

John Joseph Denis HYNES (SHS: enrolled 1933)

For service to veterans through the 2/1 Field Regiment Association.

Barry Leslie LEWIS (SHS: 1940-1944)

For service to the community of Port Macquarie, particularly as a contributor to preserving and restoring St Thomas' Church.

John REDDISH (SHS: 1947-1950)

For service to the community through Rotary International, particularly in the development and provision of humanitarian aid programs.

Albert Alexander SELIG (SHS: 1936)

For service to the Jewish community in Sydney.

Alan Frank STILL (SHS: 1944-1945)

For service to the community through Rotary International as a provider of sponsorship for the education of children in Indonesia.

2008

Paul Clement HAMMOND (SHS: 1936-1939)

For service to the development and promotion of dance, particularly ballet, as a performer, choreographer and teacher.

Alfons Martin ROSENSTRAUSS (SHS: 1941-1942)

For service to medical research through the establishment and management of the Rebecca L Cooper Medical Research Foundation.

2009

Peter SCHIFF (SHS: 1947-1951)

For service to health in the field of haematology, and to the Jewish community.

Malcolm James Lees STENING (SHS: 1925-1929)

For service to medicine as a gynaecological surgeon, and to the community through the recording of naval history.

Richard Galbraith BYRES (SHS: 1955-1959)

For service to Rugby Union football as a player, referee and administrator.

Alan John FORD (SHS: 1953-1957)

For service to the community of the Central Coast, and to local government.

Malcolm Bruce MIDDLETON (SHS: 1963-1968)

For service to architecture, and to the community through child welfare organisations.

2010

Ian John HEADS (SHS: 1955-1960)

For service to the media as a sports journalist, author and mentor.

Keith Edward JAMESON (SHS: 1957-1961)

For service to the sport of rowing in New South Wales.

Denis Warwick KING (SHS: 1955-1959)

For service to medicine, particularly in the field of colorectal surgery, to medical education and to professional organisations.

Richard Wittingham WHITE (SHS: 1946-1950)

For service to the community, particularly through the Australian Rotary Health Research Fund.

2011

Russell John HANNAH (SHS: 1956-1960)

For service to the arts, particularly through the Illawarra Folk Club, and to the community.