77th Annual Speech Day

A-ROVING

In Plymouth town there-lived a maid,
Bless-you, young women;
In Plymouth town- there lived a maid,
O mind what I do say — do say;
In Plymouth town there lived a maid
And she was-mistress of her trade;
I'll go no more a-roving with you, fair maid,
A-roving, a-roving, a-roving's-been my ruin,
I'll go no more a-roving with you, fair maid.

I took this fair maid for a walk,
Bless-you, young women;
I took this fair maid for a walk
O mind-what I do say — do say;
I took this fair-maid for a walk
And we had such a-loving talk;
I'll go no more a-roving with you, fair maid,
A-roving, a-roving, a-roving's been my ruin,
I'll go no more a-roving with you, fair maid.

I took her-hand within my own,
Bless-you, young-women;
I took her hand within my own,
O mind-what I do say — do say;
I took her hand within my own
And said- 'I'm bound to my old home.'
I'll go no more a-roving with you, fair maid,
A-roving, a-roving, a-roving's been my ruin,
I'll go no more a-roving with you, fair maid.

ALL THRO' THE NIGHT

While the moon her watch is keeping,
All thro' the night,
While the weary world is sleeping,
All thro' the night,
O'er my bosom gently stealing,
Visions of delight revealing,
Breathes a pure and holy feeling,
All thro' the night.

Love, to thee my thoughts are turning,
All thro' the night,
And-for thee my heart-is yearning,—
All thro' the night,
Though sad fate our lives may sever,
Parting cannot last for ever,
There's a hope that leaves me never,
All thro' the night.

SCHOOL SONG

Come, rally round, boys young and old,
To swell the happy throng,
And sing the song of Sydney High
In measures loud and long!
Though many are our tasks severe,
With efforts none the less sincere,
We'll overcome them year by year
With courage bold and strong.

Chorus:

Then sound once more the strain,
And let the cloisters ring again
With echoes of our School's fair name:
The name of Sydney High.

Ring out the name of Sydney High
In peals of joyful praise!
The glories of our heritage
Must never fade away.
With "Truth and Courage" as our guide
And-minds prepared what'er betide,
When we are-scattered far-and wide
Our tribute still we'll pay. (Repeat Chorus.)
